INDIAN AUDIT AND ACCOUNTS DEPARTMENT

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL FOR MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Circular dated 30th May 1951.

To

All Treasury Officers in the State.

Affixing of the Treasury seal on challans.

No. 49—T.M. As per Article 5 (4) of the Mysore Civil Account Code, Vol. I, receipts should bear the name of the Treasury and be stamped with the Treasury stamp (seal), which should distinctly show the date of issue, the designation of the officer granting it and the head of account to which the amount was credited.

Agreeably to the instructions conveyed in letter No. F1.-01 dated 23rd April 1951, it is hereby directed that each Treasury should keep two seals, one in the custody of the Head of the Cash Branch to be used solely on cash challans and the other in the custody of the Head of the Accounts Branch, to be used in respect of challans tendered for receipt of money by transfer.

380

Circular No. 53—TM., dated 5th June 1951.

To

All Drawing Officers,
All Treasury Officers.

Subject—Pre-audit Bills passed for payment at Mofussil Treasuries.

Hitherto, pre-audit bills authorised for payment at Mofussil treasuries used to be sent to the drawing officers for presenting them at the Treasury for encashment. In future, such bills will be sent to the Treasury Officers direct and an advice of the despatch of the bills to the Treasury will be sent to the drawing officers. For receiving payment of the amounts due on such bills, the drawing officers should present the advice either in person or send through a messenger with an authority for receiving payment. In either case, the drawing officer has to give a receipt for the amount on the advice itself.

In the Treasury, the advice will be attached to the corresponding bill and the fact of payment will be noted both on the bill and the advice. The payments will be shown as distinct items in the list of payments.
